

Essential skills for new and aspiring science leadership

If you are stepping in to a new position as head of department then this course will give you all you need.

The course

Working with an experienced science leader you will develop your vision and leadership skills to enable you to lead an effective and vibrant science team.

Outcomes

You'll be able to understand how to identify key priorities for departmental improvement by analysing data and information and will be able to evaluate and select strategies to implement successful teamwork and lead change. You'll learn solutions for common challenges and will be able to develop a vision for teaching and learning in science.

"Very useful as a new head of department."
